GAINESBORO.

Mitchel Jackson, of Cleveland Okla., how are you and the folks well I trust. I received a letter from James on the 2nd of this month, he said he was well and thought he might be discharged at an early date. I sure would be happy to hear of it. Tell Lena to write to the Sentinel, and when your time to the paper expires, don't fail to send in your renewal. The Sentinel is the best paper published now-a-days.

Miss Davie Grogan why not write to the paper? Miss Arpha Dyer I know you are done gathering corn by now. If you still think you need those overalls, let me know and I will get them for you. I am still liking Gainesboro and its good people. Every body is so nice to me, I feel like I was at home.

Hello! Nannie Rector of Illinois How are you and the folks? Still homesick I guess. Oliver spent two night with me when I was at home. He sure looks fine. Write me all the news from the north. Heard Luther Porter and brother, Urah were in on a visit, hope I shall see them while they are here.

Garland Jackson.
